

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic, received today a delegation of deputies, businessmen and local officials of the Republic of Turkey.

It was jointly noted that bilateral relations were excellent and political dialogue was intense, which was particularly contributed to by the successful visit of Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan to Serbia this month.

Both sides expressed their willingness to continue to improve cooperation in all areas of common interest.

{youtube}DzypZI81iIQ{/youtube}

Both sides agreed that economic cooperation was an important segment in building good neighbourly relations and overall stability in the region.

Today's meeting was also attended by President of the Assembly of the City of Jagodina and President of United Serbia party Dragan Markovic Palma.