

In a statement for Tanjug news agency, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic said that the Serbian Government in coordination with President Aleksandar Vucic arranged an Air Serbia flight to Abu Dhabi which was expected to arrive at the Belgrade airport this evening bringing home 134 Serbian citizens, including five infants.

"A plane to Stockholm is planned to take off tomorrow, returning to Belgrade via Brussels. As for Tuesday, two flights to Istanbul have been arranged as well as an ATP flight to Bucharest", the Minister said.