

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic sent a telegram of condolences to Radomir Antic's family.

"Sad news is always sudden and so was the news about the death of the legendary Serbian coach Radomir whom I have been personally acquainted with and who will remain in my memory forever. In this hour of grief, my deepest sympathies go to his family.

Serbian sports has suffered an immense loss with his departure".