

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic said that the Serbian Government, in coordination with President Aleksandar Vucic, arranged an Air Serbia flight to Washington, D.C. to take off today.

"236 Serbian citizens will board this flight and return to Serbia", Minister Dacic said for Tanjug news agency.

The Minister added that 170 American and eight Canadian nationals would be transported to Washington, D.C. on the same flight, as well as eight from Serbia.

The Serbian Foreign Minister also stated that a flight for Kiev and Bucharest was scheduled for tomorrow.
