

Minister Dacic: Greece opens its border to Serbian citizens

Tuesday, 16 June 2020.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic told RTS reporters that Greece informed the Serbian side that its citizens could travel to the country across the border between Bulgaria and Greece.

Minister Dacic expects the official decision confirming the opening of the border to all Serbian citizens to be made tomorrow.

He clarified that the decision concerned solely travels across the border between Bulgaria and Greece, and not North Macedonia.
