

Minister Selakovic paid homage to the relics of King Milutin in Sofia

Wednesday, 20 January 2021.

Minister of Foreign Affairs Nikola Selakovic began his official visit to Bulgaria this morning by visiting the St. Nedelya Church in Sofia, where he paid homage to the relics of Holy King Milutin.

In the church, he met with Chief Secretary of the Holy Synod of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, Bishop Gerasim.

Minister Selakovic will have meetings with top Bulgarian officials, Prime Minister Boyko Borissov and President Rumen Radev, as well as Minister of Foreign Affairs Ekaterina Zaharieva.

This is the first official bilateral visit at the level of Foreign Ministers since 2014.
