MINISTER JEREMIC IN MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTRY'S COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

Serbian Foreign Minister Vuk Jeremic held a meeting today with the Foreign Ministry's Council on Foreign Relations.

Minister Jeremic informed the Council about the activities undertaken by the Foreign Ministry and current foreign policy developments. During the meeting, the discussions focused on the European integration process, visa liberalization and the measures taken by the Foreign Ministry and other state authorities to prevent further recognitions of the unilateral declaration of independence of Kosovo and Metohija.

During the meeting, Minister Jeremic elicited the Council's views regarding these extremely important issues figuring high on the list of Serbia's foreign policy activities.
