

Serbian Foreign Minister Vuk Jeremic has met with the Chairman of the Russian Duma Committee on International Affairs, Mr. Konstantin Kosachev, in Belgrade.

Jeremic and Kosachev talked about bilateral relations and the deepening of cooperation in all areas between the two countries.

Minister Jeremic conveyed his gratitude to the Russian Federation for its continued support to the efforts of the Republic of Serbia in seeking to preserve its territorial integrity.

They underscored the significance of full stability of the Western Balkans as well as deepening of mutual cooperation among all countries in the region.