

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today the Ambassador of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Belgrade, Ranko Skrbic.

In the talks they laid emphasis on the upcoming donor conference for assistance to flood-affected areas of the Republic of Serbia and Bosnia-Herzegovina, to be held in mid-July 2014, in Brussels.

Furthermore, they exchanged views on the current issues related to the bilateral cooperation between Serbia and Bosnia-Herzegovina.
