

First Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met last night with Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade Peter Szijjarto, on the fringes of the Third Meeting of Heads of Government of PR of China and Central and Eastern European Countries.

The talks affirmed that the relations between Serbia and Hungary were developing on an ascending line, underlining the importance of the Belgrade-Budapest railway project implementation. The two foreign ministers agreed that the project was of priority importance and that it was to be completed in two or not more than three years.

Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation in the implementation of the Hungarian-Serbian railway project was signed today between the National Commission for Development and Reforms of the PR of China, Office of the Government Commissioner for coordination of Hungarian-Chinese bilateral relations and the Ministry of Construction, Transportation and Infrastructure of the Republic of Serbia.
