

“The European Commission’s Serbia Progress Report confirms that Serbia has achieved very significant results on its European path.

A logical EU response to Serbia’s accomplishments in respect of economic reforms, alignment of its legislation with the EU acquis, contribution to regional stability and improvement of Serbia’s international position would be the opening of first negotiating chapters by the end of the year.”