

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Ivica Dačić met today with the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Croatia, Miro Kovač, and of Turkey, Mevlüt Çavuşoğlu, in the margins of an informal meeting of EU and candidate country Ministers of Foreign Affairs, held in Amsterdam.

The meeting with the newly-appointed Croatian Minister concluded that further talks on strengthening the bilateral and regional cooperation were to be continued.

Regarding the recent reports in some Turkish media, Minister Çavuşoğlu denied the existence of official information on snipers of Serbian origin supporting the Kurds, and he announced that the Serbian authorities would be timely informed if the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs came into possession of any information to the contrary.
