

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a farewell call from the Ambassador of the Republic of Bulgaria to Serbia, Angel Dimitrov.

On the occasion, Minister Dacic expressed his gratitude to Ambassador Angel Dimitrov for the successful and close cooperation during the Ambassador's term of office in Belgrade.

Minister Dacic recalled the numerous visits exchanged between the two countries' officials in the previous period, stressing the importance of continuing a dynamic political dialogue.

In the talks, both sides pointed out the importance of very good bilateral relations between Serbia and Bulgaria, of further promoting the cooperation concerning the economy and culture, as well as addressing the issues of minorities.

{youtube}RE_xHdCsnGo{/youtube}