

Consultations between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Belarus were held in Minsk, from 22-23 November 2016.

The delegation of the Foreign Ministry of Serbia was led by Dr. Slavoljub Caric, Head of the International Legal Affairs Department, MFA of R. Serbia, while the Belarus delegation was headed by Mr. Andrej Metelica, Director of the Department for Contracts and Legal Issues, MFA of R. Belarus.

During the consultations, the participants harmonized their respective lists of bilateral agreements and other international legal documents which are in force between the two countries, and exchanged information on draft agreements and agreements between the two countries, that are in the process of negotiations.

The participants also exchanged views on other international legal issues, including cooperation in international organizations.