

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic addressed a letter of condolence to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Colombia, H.E. Ms. María Ángela Holguín Cuéllar following the deaths in natural disasters in Mocoa.

"I was deeply saddened by the news of the large toll of human lives caused by the natural disasters in Mocoa, Putumayo.

I take this opportunity to extend to you and the people of Colombia the expressions of my deepest condolences and most sincere sympathy to the families who lost their dearest ones", says the condolence letter by Head of Serbian diplomacy Ivica Dacic.