

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic sent a letter to Minister for Foreign Affairs of Sweden Ms. Margot Wallström, offering his condolences after the terrorist attack in Stockholm, resulting in tragic deaths of innocent victims.

"Following the terrorist attack in Stockholm, which resulted in tragic deaths of the citizens of the Kingdom of Sweden, I extend to you, Excellency, to your Government and to the families of the victims, most profound and heartfelt condolences on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and on my own behalf.

It is with deep sorrow that I sympathize with the grief of the victims' families and friends. Serbia is appalled by this insane act, and the innocent victims are a warning to us that terrorism brooks no boundaries, and that we must stand united in defence of the core values of humanity and our civilization that we share in common", reads the condolence letter from Minister Dacic.
