

Acting Assistant Foreign Minister for Security Policy, Ambassador Branimir Filipovic participated in a security forum "To Be Secure", 11-13 May 2017.

The forum, inaugurated by Montenegrin Prime Minister Dusko Markovic, was attended by a large number of officials and foreign policy experts from the region and the world.

The forum considered many foreign policy and security topics, including integration and fragmentation of the Western Balkans, entry of Montenegro into NATO, the future of the North Atlantic Alliance and influence of the United States of America, Russian Federation and Turkey on the South-East European countries.