

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic addressed a condolence message to U.S. Secretary of State Rex Tillerson following an attack on worshippers in Texas.

"Please accept my profoundest condolences at the tragic human losses and many casualties caused in yesterday's shooting at a Texas church. I kindly ask you to convey my sincere sympathies to the bereaved families, and my best wishes for a speedy recovery of the injured.

The Republic of Serbia most strongly condemns this criminal act, fully supporting the fight against all forms of extremism. This tragedy has reinforced our belief that only by joint efforts we can effectively counter such inhuman acts", says the condolence message from Minister Dacic.
