

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs was informed today from its Embassy in Tunisia that the investigation conducted by the Tunisian judicial authorities has shown that the case of the demise of the Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to Libya, Oliver Potezica, has been closed and put on file, due to the lack of evidence of criminal responsibility for his death.