

First Deputy Prime Minister of Serbia and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dačić responded today to the statement of the so-called Minister of Foreign Affairs of Kosovo Beghjet Pacolli, saying that he seems to be a bit nervous because things are not going according to plan, as they have been promised and duly paid for it.

"I understand him, things are not going according to plan as they have been promised and duly paid for it. That is why they talk nonsense and tell lies that I said I would ruin the recognition of the so-called Kosovo, that the entire world was against Serbia's policy or that we were destructive.

I am not big enough to ruin the recognition of the so-called Kosovo but I am big enough not to be scared. I shall continue to work for my country and my people.

If I am so small, you big Pacolli, how come "Kosovo" did not join UNESCO and INTERPOL? How come Suriname and Guinea Bissau revoked recognition of Kosovo? The angrier you get, big Pacolli, the happier I am", concluded Minister Dačić in response to Pacolli's post on Facebook account.
